SAN DIEGO, CA -- 09/13/07 -- FirstAgain customers are taking a vacation from high rates and paperwork when purchasing or refinancing vacation property this season. The company's AnythingLoan, an unsecured paperless loan often offered at the lowest rate available and funded the same day, is ideal for timeshare, fractional, and vacation owners. When refinancing an existing high-interest loan or financing a new or resale purchase, the AnythingLoan saves excellent credit consumers thousands of dollars in interest associated with purchasing directly through brokers or management companies.

Conventional timeshare lending sources average 14 percent, and home equity loans are harder to find or obtain these days. FirstAgain rates start at 7.49 percent -- nearly half the interest cost -- translating into more than $5,000 in savings over a seven-year term when the average cost of a timeshare is just under $18,000, and more than five times that for fractionals of $100,000.

"We love rewarding people for their hard-earned excellent and substantial credit history with innovative lending solutions," says CEO Gary Miller. "They deserve low interest rates and exceptional loan experiences, whether they finance a timeshare or anything else..."

The American Resort Development Association reported that in 2005, 4.1 million households, representing $5.1 billion in sales, own a timeshare or vacation ownership. According to NorthCourse, fractional sales reached $1.65 billion in 2006, up 35 percent from the year before. The vacation realty market is growing at a steady pace, creating opportunities for more consumers to own a second property for their leisure time. Those with excellent credit will enjoy the best value and experience the best customer service when obtaining a loan.

"Every day, we receive very positive responses from our customers about how much they appreciate a loan product tailored to their needs," said Dave Zeller, President and COO. "One of our favorites is a honeymoon couple returning from Hawaii with a new timeshare purchase previously financed at 12 percent. It's like we gave them a surprise wedding gift when they refinanced and saved thousands with us!"

The FirstAgain AnythingLoan is a nationwide unsecured consumer loan available exclusively to consumers with excellent and substantial credit. It can be quickly applied for, approved, and funded -- all online, without generating a single piece of paper. The loan can be used for any purpose imaginable including home improvement, autos, refinancing, timeshares, medical expenses, education, weddings, and adoption & fertility.

Timeshare resale
 By: Pat Foos - Mon, 17 Sep 2007 18:56:02 GMT

This is excellent information. It's sad that so many people get scammed with timeshares because corporate greed and unnecessary overhead costs cause ghastrly inflated prices (there's a good video about this here: http://www.vmix.com/video/976089/). However, at least with the info you give people can save a little bit of money.
