FirstAgain, LLC, a consumer finance company based in San Diego, announced today it has secured $30 million in funding from Arsenal Capital Partners, a New York-based private equity firm.

This is the company's second round of growth capital, the first being funding from Merrill Lynch in October 2006. FirstAgain will use the Arsenal proceeds to accelerate its expansion into the expanding loan market for individuals with excellent credit.

FirstAgain offers individuals with excellent credit the AnythingLoan, the nation's first paperless, consumer loan. The AnythingLoan is an unsecured loan of $10,000 to $100,000 that can be used for any purpose, including home improvements, vehicle purchases, educational or medical expenses, timeshares and loan refinancing.
